Topic: Do not get tired of doing good – Part 5

Bible Reading: Galatians 6:6-10

You will reap what you sow

Do not be deceived, God will not allow Himself to be ridiculed, or treated with contempt; because whatever anyone sows is what he/she will reap. Make no mistake, God is not mocked, a person will harvest what he/she plants. Do not be fooled; you cannot cheat God. People harvest only what they plant. Whether you like it or not, either you believe it or not; you will reap whatever you sow whether good or bad.

No one makes a fool of God; so, do not be misled, because you cannot ignore the instructions of the Lord and get away with it. Therefore, sow right and good; in order to reap longevity and prosperity. The Book of Galatians corroborated this fact by saying, “Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.” Galatians 6:7. Inasmuch as you cannot fool God, stop making a fool of yourself by starting to do what is right, and good.

For this reason, do not lose courage on the day of distress; else your strength is minimal. Do not give up, or become helpless in times of trouble; but continue to be nice to others. Anyone who is slack or careless in a difficult time; instead of being kind to others is weak. If you fall to pieces in a crisis; instead of standing firm, and have compassion on others; it is a weakness. If you cannot stand the pressure of adversity, then your strength is limited; according to the Bible passage which says, “If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.” Proverbs 24:10. If you fail under pressure; instead of assisting others; your power is small. Therefore, do not falter in a time of trouble, but continue to do good and right.

Do not lose heart: You must not lose heart, or grow weary doing what is right and good; because at the appointed season, you will reap the rewards of your deeds; if you do not loosen, and relax. It is important to know that at the proper time, you will reap what you have sown whether good or bad; if you do not give in. You must not be discouraged, if you desire to be rewarded. If you do not give up, or get tired of helping others; you will be recompensed by the Lord when the time is right.

Anyone who does not get tired of doing right and good, will receive the harvest of eternal life at the right time; according to the Bible passage which says, "And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart." Galatians 6:9. If you are not exhausted from doing good, you will be recompensed; if you do not grow weary. You will reap a harvest of blessings; if you do not get discouraged and give up.

Therefore, be assured that you will be rewarded for any good thing you do; immaterial of your race, gender, and color. God will never fail to recompense every person who does what is right; regardless of the nationality of such a person. It is certain that the Lord will reward every Christian during their lifetime for the good work they do. The Bible confirmed this fact by saying, "Knowing that whatever good anyone does, he will receive the same from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free." Ephesians 6:8. Remember that the Lord will give a reward to everyone; whether master, or messenger for doing good; so, do not cease doing right.
